

New Jersey's law, although strict, still does not stop all telemarketing calls. The law has decreased the number of calls but has not stopped them altogether. The calls still come as late as 8:30 p.m. which I find to be an invasion of my privacy. Please make the federal laws at least as strict as New Jersey's.